My Dear Mr Hadley: - I have your very interesting letter of Jan 5th.

I have not seen the pamphlet written by Chalmers Hadley and I have tried to secure
I have heard of it and have tried to get a copy but could not find one for sale.

1810838

The general opinion seems to be that all the Hadleys that come from New England are descendants of George of Ipswich but I doubt it. I think I wrote you the other time that our Benjamin was born is first found in the New England records
when he was married in Waltham Mass Sep 27 1711. We know about when he was born from the inscription on his tomb stone
which still stands in Southbury Vermont.
It reads "Mr Benjamin Hadley died March 24 1776 in the 72nd year of his age". I saw it about a year ago and the inscription was undoubtedly. He was of Lancaster Mass when he was married.

I have several hundred names of the descendants of this Benjamin and I find several of them who think that Benjamin was a descendant of George but in all when he was married in Watertown Mass Sep 27. 1711. We know about when he was born from the inscription on his tomb stone

It reads "Mr Benjamin Hadley dec'd March 24

these names I hardly find the name George once while the names - Simon - Jonathan Samuel - Thomas - Benjamin - Ebenezer are used over and over generation after generation.

That is why I think that our line and yours merge somewhere either in this country or before they came here. Your reference in your letter to Benjamin in your line helps to strengthen that opinion.

I would be interested to know whether you think your Simon born 1675 was the first of your line in America or whether you think he was born in America. Some one has told me that there was a Simon Hadley in North Carolina about 1660. I would like to find more about this Simon and his sons. If he was here at that time he probably was the father of your Simon born 1675 and your Simon may have <sup>been</sup> ~~had~~ an older brother of our Benjamin born 1684.

I don't want to be a pest but if you can shed any light on these problems for me I would be very thankful to you

Yours truly
 W I Hadley

Dear Friend & Cousin

Some years ago, I sent you a carbon copy of the Hadley Genealogy as formulated by myself, with the help of others, including yourself.

For some years I have not done much toward adding data. Kingston G. Hadley of Media, Pa. a descendant of George Hadley of Ipswich, has been doing considerable research in the matter of Hadleys in this Country, and through him I have received the enclosed additional data. I have not endeavored to gather data as to the present younger generation, only accepting such as was kindly sent me. Much of this, however, you will find interesting. The notes attached are selfexplanatory.

Kingston Hadley says he has found some 30 Hadleys who were original immigrants to this country, presumably in more recent times than Simon Hadley's arrival. In no instance except that of Simon, did he get any data back of the immigrant's arrival.

Very sincerely yours

Dear Friend

I don't know if this will find you or not, but am sending it anyway.

Some 20 years ago, you sent me a list of data as to the descendants of Simon & Eliz. (Thompson) Hadley, and, in response I sent you a carbon copy of my Hadley notes.

There were, no doubt, many errors, but one I would like to correct. I had a correction some 10 yrs. ago, but don't know that I notified all who had copies of my notes, and, recently the matter has again come up, so I am trying to advise all who had copies that they may correct their copies.

Elwood Hadley, late of Richland, Ia., sent me a lot of data, and amongst others sent me the name and family of Jonathan Hadley b. 1811 in N.C. who md. Jane Holiday and later settled at Pleasant Plain, Ia. He gave me that he was a son of Jacob Hadley b. 1786 who md. Phoebe Pickett & who was a brother to Simon who md. Eliz Thompson. Ora R. Hadley of Richland, a granddaughter corrected this, stating he was a son of Jacob b. 1786 who md. Ruth Hadley (dau. of Simon and Eliz. (Thompson) Hadley and who was a son of Joseph 4-25. I so corrected my record. Mrs Emma Rich of Long Beach, some time ago extracted a lot of data from my record, but also had had access to an uncorrected copy of my notes that I had given Perry C. Hadley. She found the ~~xxxxxxx~~ discrepancy and enquired of Lydia Jones of Whittier a sister of Ora Paxon, and who appears to have gotten things mixed; she stated Jonathan was a son of Jacob & Phoebe. So I wrote again to Ora Paxon and she sent me a list copied, some years ago from the family bible of Jacob and Ruth showing conclusively said Jonathan was their son. I also wrote to ~~xxxx~~ Simon J. Hadley of Snow Camp, N.C. who sent me a copy of the bible record identical with the one Ora sent me, and said he knew, positively that said Jonathan was his uncle.

So, I thought I would endeavor to have all the copies I had sent out 20 years ago, corrected.

You will find said Jonathan given No. 6-305 and as son of Jacob 5-114, Expunge said record, and give Jonathan No. 6-401 and as son of Jacob 5-129 who md your Aunt Ruth, sister to your grandfather and sister to my wife's grandmother.

Very sincerely

Edmund Robinson

P.S I am not doing much with the genealogy now, only taking such as comes my way, and have acquired much, since I made my first notes. It also seems that the first Simon was not an officer in Cromwell's Army, but probably went to Ireland & bought some of the confiscated lands; it also seems that, probably, he was not from the Somersetshire Hadleys, but from the numerous Hadleys living on the borders of Wpcestershire & Shropshire, England. ER (Elwood)

HADLEY GENEALOGY (Preliminary notes)

Many years ago, Mordecai Hadley ( 6-322 ) of Hadley Station, near Danville, Indiana, (Hendricks County), compiled somewhat of a genealogy of the Hadleys, which the undersigned had the privilege of copying and enlarging upon, nearly 30 years ago, but, unfortunately the latter was lost in a warehouse fire, and what became of Mordecai Hadley's genealogy we have been unable to ascertain. The same commenced with Simon Hadley supposed to have come from Ireland or England, and contained the tradition as to the manner of his death and also as to "two brothers" having emigrated from the British Isles. It included only the second family of Joshua Hadley (3-8) and fairly full data as to the descendants of Jeremiah Hadley (4-23) and Joshua Hadley (4-24) for the two following generations in so far as the Indiana families were concerned.

It remained for Chalmers Hadley (8-1545) of Denver Public Library, Denver, Colo. to obtain definite data as to the emigrant Simon Hadley (2-2) his father's family and the descendants of the first family of Joshua Hadley (3-8) and much other valuable information as set forth in his "Notes on the Quaker Family of Hadley", copies of which may be obtained from the author.

We are also indebted to Walter B. Hadley (8-2042) for data as to the Marshall descendants of Ruth Hadley (4-18). The foundation of these notes were a copy of a chart by Walter B. Hadley, enlarged and amplified by comparison with a genealogy formulated by Henry Webster Parry for Washington Hadley (6-298) a copy of which is in the possession of his daughter Emilie V. Hadley (7-962) of Whittier, Calif. , also notes in the possession of Chalmers Hadley which included a copy of the Washington Hadley Genealogy formulated by Webster Parry, also notes and copies of partial genealogies from Lina Macy (9-3117) Centre, Ohio, from Perry C. Hadley (8-1262) Pasadena, Calif., from Wm. J. Hadley (8-1609) Turner, Or., from John T. Hadley (7-711) Danville, Ind., from Elwood Hadley (7-1069) Highland, Ia., from Judge H.E. Hadley (8-2060) Seattle, Wash., from James Hadley (7-1234) Wichita, Kas. and others too numerous to mention here, although credit is given in some cases under the respective families.

It is a matter of regret that such a large number bearing the name have taken so little interest in the matter as to ignore all requests for information, not even showing enough courtesy to reply, even when the means therefor was provided. It will be noted that in the following tables the families of descendants of Hadley are frequently included, while this may not be customary in genealogical tables, it is true that some of these have shown interest in the matter unsurpassed by any who retain the name, and the best way of retaining the data appears to be to incorporate it with the rest, besides the immediate ~~mark~~ relatives value such data.

We have been able to correct some errors in previous notes, and to add much entirely new data, but, without doubt, some errors still exist. If any person able to authentically correct such errors, or to furnish additional data, will communicate with Chalmers Hadley, Librarian, Public Library, Denver, or with Walter B. Hadley, Horticultural Inspector, Redlands, Cal or with the undersigned c/o U.S. Land Office, 414 Custom House, San Francisco it will be very much appreciated.

Ill., and as Lieutenant-Colonel in the 8th Illinois Cavalry, was shot from his horse while leading a desperate charge of two troops to save Frentice's Headquarters at Shiloh, and while under the charging hoofs, he received nine wounds. He lost his left arm and was permanently lame, but regained reasonable health. ( ref. James A. (7-550)

James A. Hadley (7-550) claims that Mary Dickey, who married Jeremiah Hadley (4-23) was daughter of John and Mary (O'Connoer) Dickey, and was granddaughter of Nelson and Sally (Westlake) Dickey, and of James and Abigail (Spencer) O'Connor.

He also claims (which is incorrect, as see above) that Jeremiah Hadley (4-23) was a son of a Simon Hadley and Rachel (Warren) Hadley, and a grandson of John Hadley
b. 1688 and Sarah (Worthington) Hadley.

(7) 6-248 Eleanor Thompson b. 1-15-1822 ( ? d. 8-27-1827)

Simon and Elizabeth Hadley lived in North Carolina, but came to Indiana in their later years, after their children had all or mostly all moved west. Both died at the home of Simon J. Hadley, their son-in-law. Simon Hadley died from injury caused by a team running away.

The record of births of above family are from record of Perry H. Hadley of Pittier and Pasadena, Cal and were taken from the old family bible in Simon H. Hadley's family, with the probable exception of the last entry, Eleanor, 6-248. It does not appear certain there was a second daughter named Eleanor and this entry may belong elsewhere.

The second Eleanor was the dau. of Simon & Elizabeth Thompson but lived with them & was a niece the dau. of Abel Thompson.

Note. Data on descendants of Joseph Hadley (5-117) was largely furnished in the first place by Cyrus Way (son of Jane / 6-342) and was later checked, corrected and additional data furnished by Ellwood Hadley (son of John / 6-339). He had Jonathan Hadley (No. 6-305) as a son of Joseph, but Ellwood states positively he was son of Jacob (5-114) and he should know as Jonathan Hadley's wife was a sister to Ellwood's mother. The date of his birth, if correct would preclude his being a son of Joseph. Cyrus Way claims Joseph had a son Jonathan.
